CIRCULAR ADDRESSING.

IN presenting our own Circular agent our Circular Addressing and Delivery Business, we have to announce that during the past year we have transacted business with nearly all the large Houses in the City and throughout the Country, and have given complete satisfaction.

The difficulties usually attending the delivering of Circulars—the unreliable class of deliverers employed, want of proper supervision, &c.—we have entirely swept away. The total want of addressing facilities, especially at an election time or other important occasion, among a large commercial community such as this, has resulted in our establishing the Addressing Department, in which, for efficiency and economy, we have no rivals. We can undertake Addressing and Delivering at the rate of 10,000 per day.

CIRCULAR LETTERS WRITTEN, where Printing is not desirable, cheaper and more effective than Copying Processes.

ADVERTISING BY CIRCULAR,

And the advisability of adopting it, should claim the special attention of the entire Commercial world, and the public should be well impressed with the fact that in our offices we have a thorough and complete organisation for carrying out the system. We have ready at hand all the necessary appliances for Postal or Personal Delivery of Circulars, Pamphlets, &c., to any Trade, Profession, or class in any County, Town, or Village in the United Kingdom.

Our Charges are the lowest possible, insuring as they do the use of the latest Directories and Lists published, combined with the greatest possible correctness in Addressing.

Our Deliverers are most respectable in Dress and manner; and that nothing may be wanting, they are so strictly supervised that their fidelity is an absolute certainty.

Full Particulars, Quotations, &c., on Application.

TEN BARGAINS IN ADVERTISING.

MESSRS. WILSON & COMPY., Advertising Agents and Experts, 83 JAMAICA STREET, GLASGOW, beg respectfully to submit the following to Experimentors. Our business has been carefully studied, and we know that these Lines mean Profit to the Advertiser just as certain as that the seed sown in the ground will yield an increase in its season. Our remarks on another page on the making-up of an Advertisement should be studied.

SPECIAL REDUCTIONS FOR LENGTHENED PERIODS.

We represent a choice selection of Scottish Periodical Publications, of extensive circulation and influence, and having peculiar merit, and value to Advertisers.

↔ NECESSARY INFORMATION ↔

HOW TO CONSTRUCT A PAYING ADVERTISEMENT.

WHAT would a warehouseman think of a salesman who stood simply to supply what was asked for, and never used persuasion in the slightest degree? Imagine employing a deaf and dumb man as an insurance canvasser, and yet that is what thousands of Advertisers practically do in putting words into the form of an Advertisement that might as well be in an unknown tongue, for all the business it will bring. We venture to submit the following as a framework to hang an Advertisement on, and we do so with the confidence that follows success. Write out full answers to each and all of these questions, then from the answers prepare your Advertisement, which should be as concise, interesting, direct and novel in expression as you can make it.

What is the thing you have to offer ?

What can be said generally of its public uses and services ?

What can be said specially for it in comparison with similar articles ?

What particular reason can you advance for buying the thing from you ?

What test of merit has it undergone ?

What opportunity of trial of its merit can you tender ?

What is the cost ?

Estimates can be given for the above—

In Daily or Weekly Newspapers.

In Magazines. On Tramway Cars.

In the form of a Circular, Printing and Delivering by Post or otherwise.

In the form of a Wall Poster, Printing and Posting.

Or in any form which seems most suitable and desirable.

Sir WILLIAM THOMSON, F.R.S., Glasgow University.—"I have seen several different forms of Mr. Boyle's Air-Pump Ventilator in actual operation, and have much pleasure in testifying to their efficiency. They thoroughly realize the favourable anticipations which I formed from experiments on models shown to me by Mr. Boyle. THE ORIGINAL 18/6 TROUSERS SCHEME.

In fixing upon 18/6 as the price at which a first-class Pair of Trousers can be produced, we are not ignorant of the fact that Trousers could always be had at 13/6, 15/6, or 16/6. The great army of producers at these prices—like the lower ranks of every other trade or profession—has always been crowded to excess with an ever-increasing mass of inferior talent, it being the common resource of all those who cannot attain to the higher branches of the Trade.

On the other hand, the outlet for High-class Trousers at a "minimum" price for CASH is practically unlimited, the producers of High-class Goods—always a select few in this trade, as in others—having joined to the sale of their Goods a ridiculous system of long credit, and, as a necessary consequence, high prices—high prices not because high-class, but because of long credit. We were not slow to take advantage of this anomalous state of matters, and the practical result is that our 18/6 TROUSERS SCHEME has now become one of the best known and most popular institutions in connection with the Trade of Glasgow.

P R E F A C E .

THE Publishers of the Glasgow Post-Office Directory beg to express their thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed on the work during the long period of sixty-one years. It has ever been their desire that the information it contained should keep pace with the progress and general requirements of the Second City of the Empire, and every effort has been made to render it as accurate and complete as possible.

At the beginning of the book will be found a Map of the Environs of Glasgow, the Almanac, Tide Tables, Phases of the Moon, &c. The City Chamberlain and Mr. Henry, the City Assessor, have kindly supplied Statistics of the estimated Population of the City and Suburbs, the Parliamentary and Municipal Voters for 1888-89, with the Parliamentary Divisions of the City and Members of Parliament, also the Voters on Electoral Roll for School Board, and the Rental of Glasgow for 1889. At pages 74 to 97 an Alphabetical List of Streets is given; as a handy guide to their situation the number and letters affixed to each Street indicate its position on the Map, which will be found useful to strangers visiting Glasgow. In the large Map, from actual survey by J. Bartholomew, Esq., Edinburgh, great care as usual has been taken in showing the various new streets that have been formed since last issue. Rutherglen, Burnside, Cathkin Park and Braes, Cathcart (Old and New), and Pollokshaws, are now also included, and the various underground railway stations are marked by an asterisk. The Map is placed at the end of the volume, so that it may lie open without interfering with the turning over of the pages.

In the Street Directory the number affixed to the name of each Street indicates the Municipal Ward in which it is placed for Electoral purposes. In order to make the work as largely available as possible the various Suburban Districts around the City are given, together with the members of Parliament for the Burgh or Division in which they are placed, viz.:—Bearsden, Bishopbriggs, Bothwell, Cambuslang, Cathcart, Lenzie, Maryhill, Millerston, Milngavie, Pollokshaws, Rutherglen, Shawlands, Shettleston, Tollcross, and Uddingston, and will be found following the City Directory proper. Govan and Parkhead are now incorporated with the General Directory.

In the Appendix will be found useful details regarding Postal and Telegraph arrangements, together with Local and General Intelligence; and the Publishers beg to thank the gentlemen connected with the various Institutions for their kindness in supplying much useful information.

The printing has been done, as usual, by Mr. Mackenzie, Howard Street, and the binding by Messrs. Gowans & Gray, Ann Street.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a list of Stamp duties according to the schedule of the Act 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97 (amended by 34 Vict. c. 4, and 34 and 35 Vict. c. 103), with the Duty on Policies of Sea Insurance, Letters Patent, Patent Medicine, and Plate, and Inventory, Legacy, and Succession Duties, which remain under the former Acts. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule. When the sections are merely cited without the Act, they are the sections of 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97. All items in the schedule of the Act relating solely to England and Ireland are excluded. In the same session were passed the Acts 33 and 34 Vict. c. 98, Stamp Duties Management, and 33 and 34 Vict. c. 99, repealing certain enactments relating to the Stamp Duties.

The Act 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97, came into operation on 1st January, 1871, and by § 3 the exemptions in other Acts in force are preserved.

The attention of the public may be directed to the following matters:—

1. The general deed duty, or duty on a deed, not otherwise charged, is reduced to 10s.

2. Progressive duty on words is not imposed.

3. Provisions are made for charging ad valorem duty on conveyances in respect of periodical payments or annuities.—(§ 72.)

4. An agreement for a lease for a term not exceeding thirty-five years is to be charged with the lease duty.—(§ 96.)

5. An instrument chargeable as a lease in consideration, in whole or in part, of produce or other goods—

Where it is stipulated that the value shall amount to or not exceed a given sum, ad valorem lease duty on such sum.

A statement in the lease in regard to the value of such produce or goods to be conclusive as to stamp duty, unless and until shown to be incorrect.—(§ 97.)

6. A notarial instrument is liable to the same duty as an instrument of seisin—to wit, 5s.

7. Any instrument specifically charged by any previous Act with the duty of 35s., is chargeable with the duty of 10s.—(§ 4.)

8. Instruments relating to the property of the crown, and to the private property of the sovereign, are liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision is made to the contrary.—(§ 5.)

9. Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of material.—§ 7 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of material is to be separately stamped.—§ 7 (2).

10. Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 8 (1). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 8 (2).

11. An appropriate stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 9 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 9 (2).

12. All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, penalty on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—(§ 10.)

13. Instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of money in foreign or colonial currency, the duty to be calculated on the value in British currency, according to the current rate of exchange at the date of the instrument.—(§ 11.)

14. Instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of stock or marketable security, the duty to be calculated on the value, according to the average price at the date of the instrument.—(§ 12.)

15. If the instrument contains a statement of the current rate of exchange, or average price, and is stamped accordingly, it is to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that the instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—(§ 13.)

16. The duties apply to instruments executed in the United Kingdom, and to instruments wheresoever executed, relating to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in the United Kingdom.—(§ 17.)

17. No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be pleaded or given in evidence, or admitted to be good, useful, or available in law or equity, unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—(§ 17.)

18. If any person registers an instrument not duly stamped, penalty, £10.—(§ 22.)

INVENTORY DUTY.

PROPERTY LIABLE TO THE DUTY.—Generally—

All personal property (heritable securities are personal property) belonging to the deceased in the United Kingdom, heritable securities, and personal bonds excluding executors—(48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38, &c.; 55 Geo. III. c. 184, Schedule, Part III.; 21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, §§ 9, 12, 13, &c.; and 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8.)

Personal Property—Absolute power of disposal.—

Personal estate which a person, dying after 3rd April 1860, shall have disposed of by will, under any authority enabling such person to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or movable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty.—(23 Vict. c. 15, § 4.)

Indian Promissory Notes—Ships.—Indian Government promissory notes and certificates issued, or stock in lieu thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in India for the purpose of such registration before the death of the owner; also Indian Government promissory notes, with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and certificates issued, or stock created in lieu thereof, shall be personal estate, and bona notabilia in England of the deceased person (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1); also any ship, or any share of a ship, belonging to a deceased person, registered in any port in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding such ship at the time of the death may have been at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be at the port at which she may be registered (27 and 28 Vict. c. 56), and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

Specialty Debts.—For probate and administration duty, debts and sums of money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of the deceased within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England or Ireland, in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death.—(25 Vict. c. 22, § 39.)

Foreign Bonds and Stocks.—Documents of the debts of foreign governments and foreign companies which pass from hand to hand are property where the documents may be. Debentures or bonds by foreign companies and governments, and the title to stocks of foreign companies and governments, are property in this country, if in the possession of any person in this country, and can be sold in the market, and the title of the purchasers completed to them in this country.—See Attorney-General v. Bouwens, 4 Meeson & Welsby, 171.

Rents of Heritage.—If the deceased survive Whitsunday, one moiety of the rents of the crop of that year is personal estate. If he survive Martinmas, the whole rents of that crop fall into the executory. In addition, from and after 1st August, 1870, the Acts 33 and 34 Vict. 1870, c. 35, would seem to give the executor a proportion of the rents from the term preceding the date of death to the date of death. That Act would also seem to give a proportion of the term's rents of quarries, minerals, and houses, and also feu-duties current at the death. The executor's right to house-rents would not therefore be to the half-year's rents current at death, but to a proportion only to the date of death.

MODES IN WHICH DUTY MAY BE PAID.—When deceased domiciled in Scotland.—In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland, having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and also heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory required to be recorded in the Sheriff Court; or inventory duty may be paid on the personal property situated in Scotland, including heritable securities made movable by the Act 31 and 32 Vict. c. 101, § 117, and duty may be paid on a "special inventory" of the heritable securities excluding executors and personal bonds excluding executors, and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

When deceased domiciled furth of the United Kingdom.—In case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country.

The commissioners may be required to express their opinion as to duty. Mode and effect of proceeding.

—§ 18. (1.) Subject to such regulations as the commissioners may think fit to make, the commissioners may be required by any person to express their opinion with reference to any executed instrument upon the following questions:—

- (a.) Whether it is chargeable with any duty;
- (b.) With what amount of duty it is chargeable.
- (2.) If the commissioners are of opinion that the instrument is not chargeable with any duty, such instrument may be stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty.
- (3.) If the commissioners are of opinion that the instrument is chargeable with duty, they shall assess the duty with which it is in their opinion chargeable, and if or when the instrument is duly stamped in accordance with the assessment of the commissioners, it may be also stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is duly stamped.

(4.) Every instrument stamped with the particular stamp denoting either that it is not chargeable with any duty, or is duly stamped, shall be admissible in evidence, and available for all purposes, notwithstanding any objection relating to duty.

(5.) Provided as follows:—

—An instrument upon which duty has been assessed by commissioners shall not, if it is unstamped or insufficiently stamped, be stamped otherwise than in accordance with assessment of commissioners.

(b.) Securities without limit not to be adjudicated.—Nothing in this section contained extends to any instrument chargeable with duty, and made as a security for money or stock without limit.

Persons dissatisfied may appeal.—§ 19. (1.) Any person who is dissatisfied with the assessment of the commissioners made in pursuance of the last preceding section may, within twenty-one days after the date of such assessment, and on payment of duty in conformity therewith, appeal against such assessment to Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in England, Scotland, or Ireland, according to the country in which the case has arisen, and may for that purpose require the commissioners to state and sign a case, setting forth the question upon which their opinion was required, and the assessment made by them.

Mode of Proceeding.—(2.) The commissioners shall thereupon state and sign a case accordingly, and deliver the same to the person by whom it is required, and on his application such case may be set down for hearing in the proper court.

(3.) Upon the hearing of such case (due notice of which is to be given to the commissioners) the court shall determine the question submitted, and, if the instrument in question is in the opinion of the court chargeable with any duty, shall assess the duty with which it is so chargeable.

(4.) If it is decided by the court that the assessment of the commissioners is erroneous, any excess of duty which may have been paid in conformity with such erroneous assessment, together with any penalty which may have been paid in consequence thereof, shall be ordered by the court to be repaid by the commissioners to the appellant, together with the costs incurred by him in relation to the appeal.

(5.) But if the assessment of commissioners is confirmed by court, the costs incurred by commissioners in relation to the appeal shall be ordered by the court to be paid by appellant to the commissioners.

The commissioners may call for and refuse to proceed without evidence.—§ 20. (1.) In any case of application to the commissioners with reference to any instrument, the commissioners may require to be furnished with an abstract of the instrument, and also with such evidence as they may deem necessary, in order to show to their satisfaction whether all the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of the instrument to duty, or the amount of the duty chargeable thereon, are fully and truly set forth therein, and may refuse to proceed upon any such application until such abstract and evidence has been furnished accordingly. Affidavit not to be used otherwise. Person paying full duty relieved of penalty, &c., for omission to state truly in instrument.—(2.) Provided that no affidavit or statutory declaration made in pursuance of this section shall be used against any person making the same in any proceeding whatever, except in an inquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable; and every person by whom any such affidavit or declaration is made shall, on payment of the full duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable, be relieved from any penalty, forfeiture, or disability he may have incurred by reason of the omission to state truly in such instrument any of the facts or circumstances aforesaid.

(4.) Signed by or on behalf of the drawer thereof, but which from any omission or error has been spoiled or rendered useless, although the same, being a bill of exchange, may have been presented for acceptance or accepted or endorsed, or, being a promissory note, may have been delivered to the payee, provided that another completed and duly stamped bill or note is produced identical in every particular, except in correction of such error or omission as aforesaid, with the spoiled bill or note:

(a.) Presentation to an ecclesiastical benefice not followed by institution:

By Act 17 & 18 Vict., cap. 80, it is enacted that a BIRTH must be registered within TWENTY-ONE days, a MARRIAGE within THREE days, and a DEATH within EIGHT days, respectively, thereafter.

N.B.—In the latter case, however, it is usual, and saves considerable trouble to parties, to get a Death registered previous to the interment.

By Marriage Notice Act of 1878 (41 and 42 Vict., c. 43), SEVEN CLEAR days' notice of intended marriage is required.

PENALTIES are exigible if the above rules are not complied with.
